

SAPGERIC

Structural Change Promoting Gender Equality in Research Organisations

www.sapgeric.eu2013.vu.lt

Ms. Christina Hadulla-Kuhlmann studied law at Ruhr-Universität Bochum and Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster. After completing her practical legal training, she practised her profession in a law firm and in an association. From 1992 onwards she was Deputy Head of the Legal Affairs Division of the then Federal Ministry of Education and Science (today's Federal Ministry of Education and Research, BMBF). She transferred to the Ministry's Human Resources Division, where she was responsible for the area of personnel development and advancement of women. Since 2001 she has been Head of Division for Equal Opportunities in Education and Research at BMBF. In this capacity, she is the Federal Government co-chair of the gender equality working group of the Joint Science Conference (GWK) and represents the Federal Government in the Helsinki Group of the European Commission (DG Research), which prepares expert reports on the further development of equal opportunities for women in the science system. Christina Hadulla-Kuhlmann is married and has three children.